Seasonal Sampler

This festive table runner would be a fabulous way to get started on your handmade holiday to-do list. Our simple appliqué pattern is a quick-and-easy way to try working with a variety of textures. Other types of fabric could easily be substituted for our burlap, wool and velvet selections. Denim and flannel would feel right at home here. Texture is a delight to see and feel. Dress up your table with our textured Seasonal Sampler — perfect for any season!

Designed and sewn by Heidi Kaisand — the new Editor of American Quilt Retailer. Heidi also runs a thriving quilt shop called Hen & Chicks Studio in Conrad, Iowa.

Everyone who has subscribed to or purchased a copy of this issue is welcome to download a copy of the pattern PDF to use in their shop.
